This bright and spacious home is ideally located within a pleasant 10–15 minute walk of local shops and restaurants, and close to the tennis club, golf course, hotel and other amenities — offering the perfect balance of tranquillity and convenience.

Occupying a quiet corner plot, the property enjoys exceptional privacy. The south-west facing garden is mature and beautifully established, providing a sunny and secluded setting with a private pool — ideal for relaxing or entertaining with family and friends.

Upon entering, the bungalow is immediately filled with natural light. The suite also enjoys direct access to a particularly private area of the rear garden, perfect for quiet relaxation. Two further double bedrooms are spacious and share a family bathroom.

The basement has been converted into a superb self-contained apartment featuring two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a kitchen, a large living room, sauna and ample storage. With independent access from the garden, this space is ideal for guests, extended family or rental use. A garage provides parking for two cars, or one car and a golf buggy.
