Set within the exclusive gated community of Sierra Blanca above Marbella's Golden Mile, this elegant Mediterranean style villa offers complete privacy, security, and sweeping views across the sea, mountains and surrounding greenery.

Occupying a 1,987 m² south facing plot with 763 m² of built space, the residence is arranged across three levels and designed with classic architecture, natural materials and refined finishes throughout. A stone driveway leads to a striking symmetrical façade, setting a tone of understated grandeur.

The main floor features a double height entrance hall, expansive living areas, formal salon with fireplace, dining space, and a fully equipped kitchen, all opening onto generous covered terraces for seamless indoor outdoor living. Two additional rooms include a bedroom with garden access and a flexible office space.

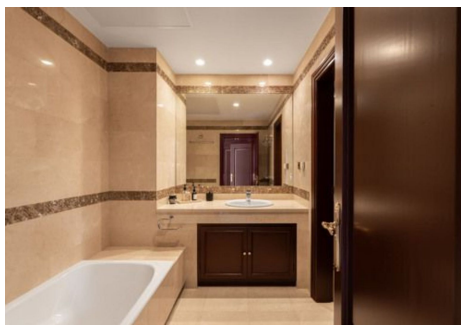

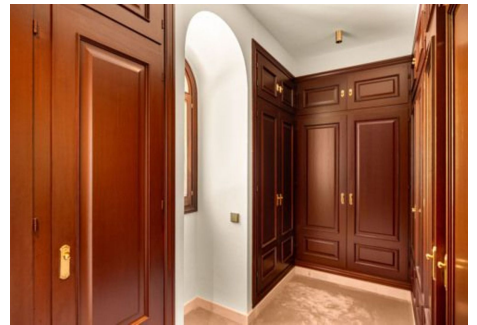

The upper level hosts guest suites and a magnificent master suite with dressing room, luxury bathroom and private terrace framing views of La Concha, Gibraltar and the African coastline.
