Located within a charming Andalusian village style community, this is an elevated ground floor apartment that has been refurbished and immaculately kept by its current owners. It consists of 2 bedrooms, two bathrooms, a sunny private terrace with open views towards the sea and mountains and a spacious open plan living dining room. The well-kept complex includes two swimming pools, ideal for a refreshing dip on a hot day. There is a lot here to discover and the location is perfect to be able to visit neighboring areas without the need of a car. Within 15 minutes walk you find the main shopping area of Riviera del Sol with a variety of restaurants, supermarkets, local businesses etc. Right on the seaside you find Max Beach club that has restaurants, sport club and bars with spectacular sea views. The Mijas Costa promenade that runs parallel to the sea and connects Riviera del Sol with La Cala de Mijas and Calahonda is perfect for all people of all ages, regardless of whether you are simply walking or practising sport. It is a wide wooden path along the coast with access to the local beaches. If you are a sport enthusiast within 10 minutes walk you will find a recently built sports complex that offers padel and tennis courts, classes like pilates, yoga, cycling etc. And last but not least, just around the corner from this apartment there is an Argentinian steakhouse that is famous for its great quality products and attentive service and is a perfect choice for the finest dining on the Costa del Sol.
