If you are seeking tranquility, privacy, breathtaking views, and comfort, this apartment in Calahonda is an ideal choice. It is situated in a secure, family-friendly gated community and faces south in the upper part of the town.

The residence features two well-appointed bedrooms, each with ample storage and natural light, along with two bathrooms that showcase high-quality finishes. The interior is further enhanced by a harmonious living-dining area that opens onto a partially glazed terrace, a contemporary kitchen with space for storage adjacent to it, and a discreet interior patio.

The complex features three communal swimming pools with stunning views of the Mediterranean, well-maintained gardens, and a private parking space for residents.

This property represents a unique opportunity, offering significant potential for appreciation and profitability.
