The ground floor has been thoughtfully converted into a self-contained apartment with its own private entrance—ideal for generating rental income or hosting guests.

The main residence occupies the upper floors and has been designed with space and comfort in mind. On the first floor, you'll find a bright open-plan living room and kitchen with a central island and feature fireplace, perfect for cozy winter evenings. Two sets of patio doors open to the front, flooding the space with natural light. A small covered patio and a full bathroom complete this level.

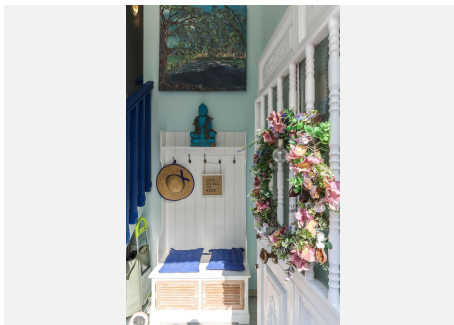

The top floor houses a spacious master bedroom with an en-suite bathroom. From here, a private terrace leads to the covered roof solarium, offering sweeping views of the surrounding mountains and town.

Outdoor area:

Covered Roof Solarium, Private Terrace off Master Bedroom, Small Covered Patio

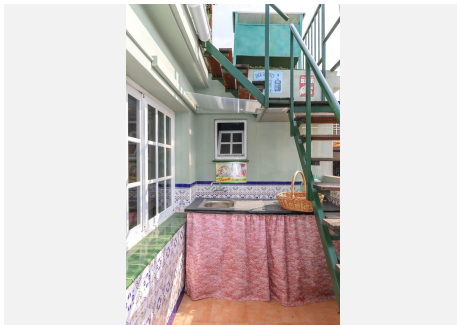

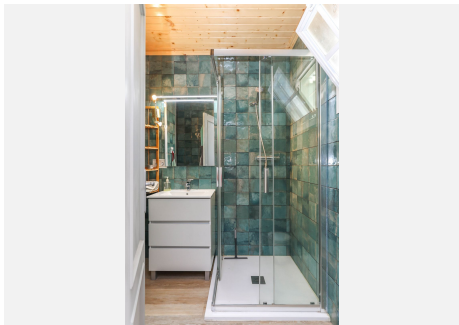

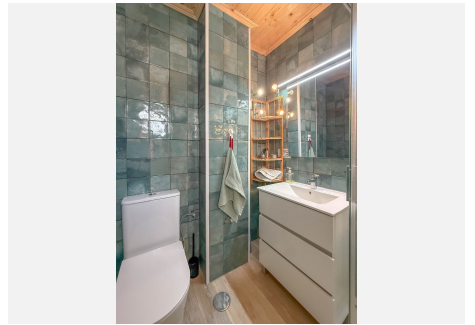

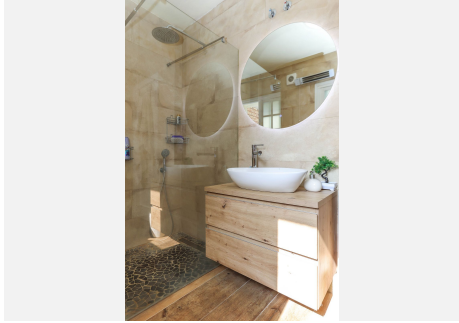

Views:

Panoramic views of the mountains and town skyline
