This recently refurbished 2-bedroom duplex oozes Andalusian Charm and is the perfect property for holiday makers and residents alike, with a bright entrance space that follows through open plan dining and living room to a good-sized terrace straight onto an impressive shared garden and communal swimming pool.

Up the beautifully appointed staircase there is a good-sized master bedroom with built in wardrobes, with an ample family bathroom and another double bedroom with storage.

This impressive property comes with its own parking space and is part of the much sought after Wyndham Grand Residences complex in Mijas Costa, where owners can enjoy the array of facilities, restaurants, bars and kids club on site. As part of the internationally recognized Wyndham Grand residences, owners have the choice to opt into a fantastic, fully serviced management programme guaranteeing rental income all year round.
