This gorgeous apartment in the peaceful green urbanisation of Cumbres del Rodeo offers a quiet, picturesque lifestyle overlooking the sea and mountains. The highlight of the residence is the beautiful, spacious southwest-facing terrace that boasts spectacular views in a completely private environment, complemented by an electric retractable sunshade. It offers three distinct spaces perfect for al fresco dining and an undercover sitting area, with the western corner offering the ideal sunbathing spot with stunning views. The entry foyer leads to a spacious lounge and dining area that opens to the main terrace, perfect for Mediterranean outdoor living. Three well-appointed bedrooms offer fitted wardrobes, with the main housing an en-suite with double vanity, shower over bath and opening onto the solarium and its vistas. The second bedroom opens to the covered terrace, while the third smaller bedroom offers a private green outlook. The fully fitted kitchen boasts black marble worktops beside a separate laundry service room. A guest bathroom offers another shower over bath, and a separate toilet. The home includes marble floors, bathroom underfloor heating, blackout roller shutters, an alarm system, and two garage spaces located near the lift. The luscious Andalucían style community is immaculately maintained, accented with fountains and voluptuous greenery that provides a relaxing, peaceful atmosphere. Stone paths lead through beautiful gardens to the freeform swimming pool with mountain views and sun lounges, open throughout the year.
