The distribution of the house is as follows: On the main level you enter into a large entrance hall with wooden doors, then you go into the main 'L' shaped living room with a fireplace, another seperate living / dinning area leading into the kitchen this leads to the patio with water fountain. Also from the patio you enter back into the main "L" living room where there is a bedroom and bathroom. On the first floor: coming up the stairs there is a large hall / study / living area with some amazing ceiling wooden features, there are 4 double bedrooms, two with balconies looking onto the main road and two full bathrooms, including the master bedroom with bathroom en suite.
