This is one of the best apartments currently available in this area around this price range. What sets the property apart from others for sale in the area is that it is south facing and so it is brighter and gets plenty of sunshine and feels light and airy. The apartment has two bedrooms and two bathrooms a fully fitted kitchen and included in the price one gets a private garage space and also a storeroom. Reserva de Marbella is located just five minutes drive from Cabopino port and also five minutes drive from Elviria. The owner has recently installed a new fujitsu hot and cold air conditioning system.
