The property benefits from a valid tourist rental licence, making it particularly attractive both as a second residence and as an investment. It is one of the relatively few properties within the development with a tourist licence and has a strong track record of short-term rental income. Rental performance and income figures can be provided to serious buyers upon request.

SEASONAL RENTAL

Available from 1 October 2026 until June 2027, for rentals of a minimum of 1 month.

From June onwards, the property is available for short-term holiday rentals, with a minimum stay of 1 week.
