large, double framed windows. On this level you will find two rather large bedrooms, a family bathroom and fully equipped kitchen.

The wide staircase leads down to a large open plan landing area with understairs storage leading to the two downstairs bedrooms. The primary bedroom, which is of a larger than generous size with ensuite bathroom and separate dressing room could be re-configured into an apartment or offer a fifth, additional bedroom. The second, also impressively large guest bedroom has an ensuite bathroom and again, could become a self-contained suite. Both rooms share views of the pool, garden, olive grove, mountains and countryside.

Leading to the garden and private pool area, there are multiple terraced areas for seating, sunbathing, dining and plenty of hard standing terrace and pathways. Additionally, there is an outdoor kitchen and BBQ, utility area with covered terrace overlooking the pool.

The thoughtfully designed and cared for garden areas cater for all manner of uses and are stocked with a differing array of planting and palm trees, providing for easy maintenance and are fully irrigated. The property has three types of water access: local town water, private well and additionally, access to the low cost and endless, canal water system the area is well known for. The property is heated and cooled by Air Conditioning and has a wood burning feature fireplace.

The picturesque olive grove is well stocked and maintained and overall provides the perfect addition to what could be, the perfect family home. Access to the property is via electric gates leading to a large sized driveway suitable for eight or more vehicles with ease.

The opportunity to improve or adapt the property will appeal to all types of buyers looking for a large, well located, private and visually stunning family home. Viewings are recommended to fully appreciate the quality and opportunity this property offers.
