The property is bursting with potential to take it to the next level although it has had significant investment already however, some areas are still requiring an upgrade.

The driveway is extremely spacious and could accommodate several vehicles. This leads to a beautiful entrance to the property.. boasting double doors into a beautiful large light and airy hallway leading to a large lounge boasting high ceilings, a feature fireplace, two double doors onto a large south facing terrace with incredible sea views. From the Terrace you can access the solarium which has an independent room that would make an additional double bedroom.
