that enjoy strolls on the beach, the world famous Puerto Banus is a pleasant 20 minute walk. Given it's enviable location, number of bedrooms and high quality facilities, the property has an impressive holiday rental record, providing fabulous returns on investment. It can be the perfect family home or rental investment. Viewings are highly recommended. San Pedro de Alcantara is a truly remarkable part of the Costa del Sol, offering a little something for all- from a quaint Spanish town complete with pretty plaza, shops and an incredible array of places to dine, to a bustling area with full accessible transport links to the rest of the coast. Straight through the centre of San Pedro is the still relatively new Boulevard, a kids haven of parks, walkways, fountains, plus go-karts and Segway's all with the aim of fun and relaxation. Beyond the Boulevard, head down to a well structured beach with a super paseo connecting all the way to Marbella- all the while surrounded by stunning villas, traditional Spanish houses and attractive brand new builds making settling into this area effortless, with a choice of top International Schools, Doctors, Banks and local businesses and services at your disposal. This is the perfect central location offering easy under 5 minutes access to the cosmopolitan Puerto Banús and 10 minutes further to Marbella on the East and the ever Spanish Estepona on the West. Furthermore you are also perfectly located for the use of either Gibraltar Airport and Malaga Airport- both conveniently 45 minutes away.
