Nestled in the tranquil foothills of La Concha, this beautifully reformed villa offers breathtaking sea, lake, and mountain views from its privileged position within the exclusive Sierra Blanca Country Club. Surrounded by nature yet just 7–8 minutes from the glamour of Puerto Banús and the Golden Mile, this is a rare opportunity to enjoy total serenity without sacrificing access to Marbella's premier lifestyle.

Set on an expansive private plot, the villa is a peaceful retreat with a climate-controlled saltwater pool, lush mature gardens, and generous terraces that open to panoramic vistas of the Mediterranean Sea—perfect for morning coffee, sunset dinners, or simply soaking in the sun-drenched beauty of the Costa del Sol.

The home blends timeless Andalusian character with modern comfort. Original features such as hand-polished Saltillo terracotta tiles, a solid wood hacienda-style door, and a traditional fireplace have been lovingly preserved, while a full renovation in 2021 brought the property into the 21st century with solar panels, underfloor heating and cooling, high-efficiency air conditioning, and a fully upgraded kitchen with premium energy-rated appliances.
