Nestled in the vibrant heart of Málaga, just steps away from the iconic Plaza de la Merced, this exceptional 5-bedroom, 2 floor house offers a unique blend of modern comfort and retro charm. Boasting two recently renovated bathrooms, the house seamlessly combines original Spanish architectural elements with contemporary design, creating a truly one-of-a-kind living experience. The interior showcases a captivating fusion of old and new, featuring retro furniture that complements the traditional Spanish style.

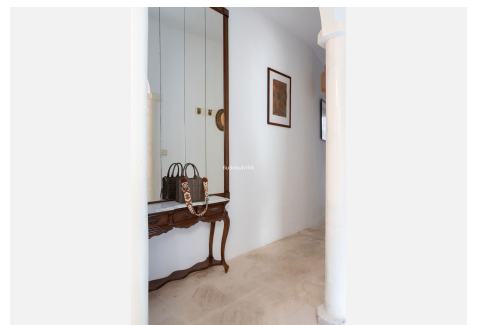

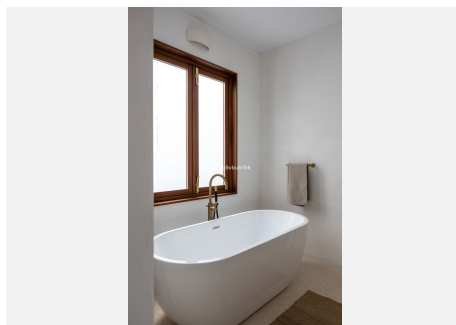

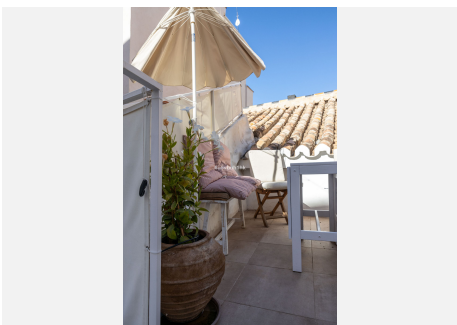

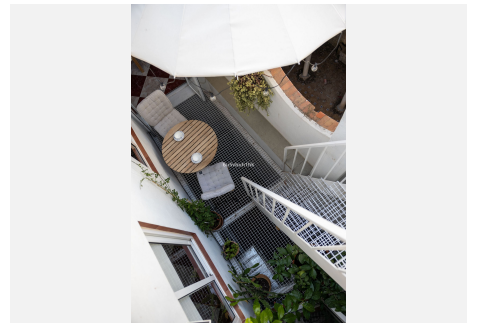

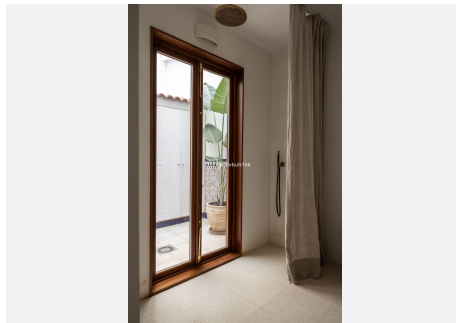

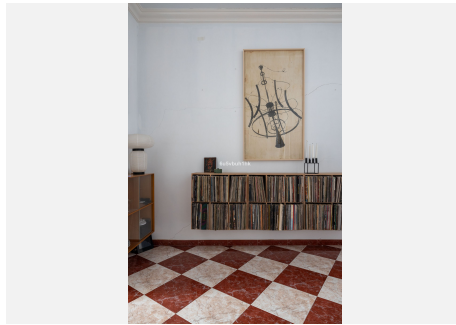

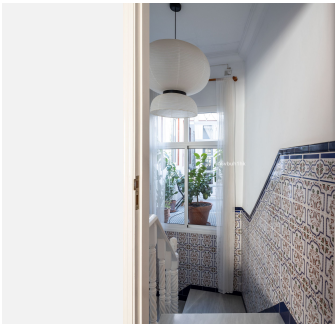

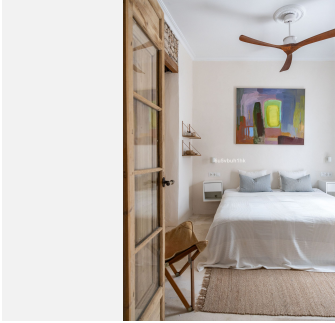

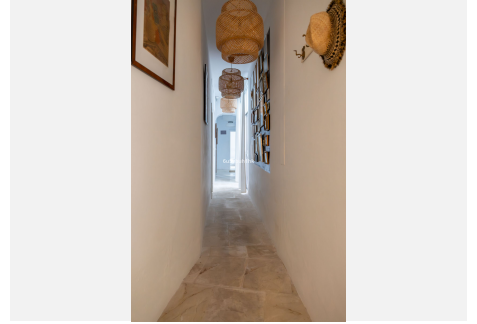

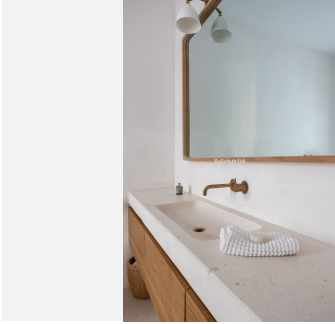

One of the standout features of this residence is the presence of two internal patio areas, providing tranquil retreats. Additionally, the property offers a rooftop space, perfect for enjoying a refreshing drink under the sun. With a strategic location in the city center and the added convenience of a tourist license, this house presents an enticing opportunity as a successful vacation property.

The property's two small balconies offer a glimpse of the quiet street life below, providing a front-row seat to the cultural richness of Málaga. Whether you're captivated by the charm of Andalusian life, or the potential for a thriving vacation rental, this beautiful property stands as a testament to the enchanting allure of Málaga centre.
