The villa is distributed over one storey and comprises two spacious bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and two elegant, modern bathrooms with showers. The home stands out with its high ceilings and an open-plan layout that integrates the kitchen (not fitted), dining area, and living room into one bright space. The black metal-framed windows with double glazing add both style and energy efficiency.

Outside, the villa boasts a sunny front terrace perfect for relaxing, along with a pleasant side terrace equipped with water and electricity connections, ideal for setting up a barbecue area, summer kitchen, or pergola.

The plot provides ample parking space for several vehicles, and there is also enough room to build a swimming pool if desired.
